

The Verge Insurance Group Raises Awareness for Those in Need

(St. Catharines, Ontario), July 27th, 2012, The Verge Insurance Group hosted a BBQ to raise money for the United Way along with a donation of 50 fleece blankets to be distributed to those in need. The BBQ raised a total of $4,000 for the United Way of St. Catharines.

"We are proud to support the United Way of St. Catharines who helps to support those in our community with some basic needs, that many of us take for granted," stated Mark Sherk, President of the Verge Insurance Group. "We think giving back to our community is fundamentally important and know that these funds and blankets, will reach the individuals in our communities who need support the most."

The local musical talent of Chris Goosen, Angela Siracusa, Andrew George, Vince Mannell and the duet of FreeStyle, Leah Laveck & Jade Sammut thrilled the crowd in Montebello Park.

